Profile

Creative strategist and full-funnel marketer with 6+ years building content systems, performance campaigns, and brand experiences across healthtech, fintech, and AI startups. I combine storytelling with product thinking to generate measurable business results. Equally at home directing a photoshoot, building a Shopify store from the ground up, writing UX copy, or architecting a CRM lifecycle journey. I learn fast, ship faster, and make every medium count.

- Conceptualised, scripted, and art-directed product launch videos, photoshoots, and social campaigns; managed creative vendors end-to-end.
- Wrote UX copy for in-app flows, onboarding screens, and push notifications.
- Led branding and packaging design briefs for GoodFlip product lines, ensuring visual consistency from digital ad to physical product.
- Managed an end-to-end influencer marketing programme spanning 20 health & wellness creators: sourced & vetted influencers, negotiated contracts, wrote creative briefs, and tracked performance against lead + sign-up targets, contributing to the overall 1,200+ qualified leads per month pipeline.
